General Boat Description

From the original builders of Cabo Yachts comes the Mag Bay 42 Express. The Mag Bay 42 Express is a premium sportfishing yacht that seamlessly blends luxury with high-performance capability. Designed for both serious anglers and family outings, this vessel offers a spacious cockpit equipped and designed for tournament sportfishing, ample storage, and customizable options to suit every need.

The refined interior features elegant, yacht-quality finishes, a fully equipped galley, bright and open feel via windows and skylights throughout and comfortable sleeping accommodations for longer journeys.

Built on a hull design by Michael Peters, the 42 Express ensures smooth, efficient cruising, exceptional handling, and the speed to tackle any offshore adventure. Powered by twin Volvo Penta D13 inboard (direct drive) diesels providing 1,000 hp per side, the 42 Express provides excellent performance while maintaining efficiency. Combining sleek styling with rugged performance, the Mag Bay 42 Express sets a new standard for mid-size express sportfishing yachts. The Mag Bay 42 is available in tower/no tower configurations.
